1986

There was a time when we---

- first entered St. Bernard's as "Baby Frosh",
- conformed strictly to the dress code,
- couldn't work our lockers,
- carried cafeteria trays for seniors,
- had a case of the jitters on Freshman/Senior Night.

Time passed and we---

- had more confidence as sophomores,
- began to build lasting friendships,
- stumbled over Spanish verbs,
- cheered for our J.V. teams.

Time began to move faster as we---

- took our place as upperclassmen,
- began thinking about the future,
- took those SAT's,
- proudly flashed our class rings,
- banded together as a class,
- said good-bye to the seniors in our JSR.

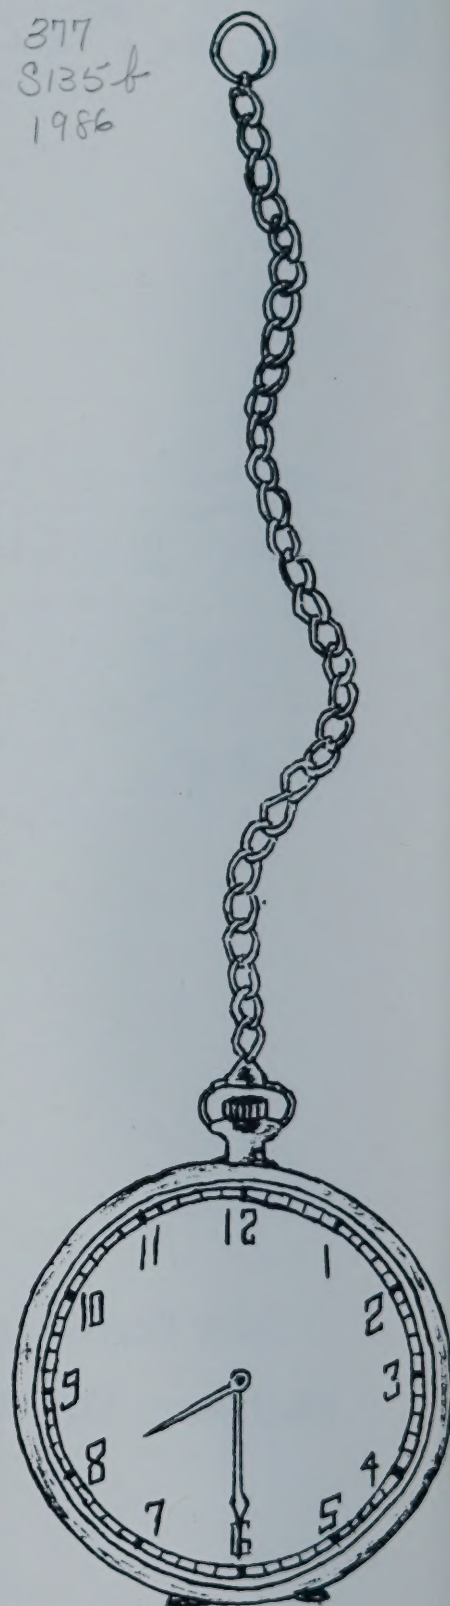

Time started running out and we---

- laughed at the freshmen but remembered our own Freshmen/Senior Night,
- voted for our Homecoming queen,
- cheered for our teams for the last time,
- played our final game dressed in Blue and Gold,
- sang our finale in the musical,
- looked through college catalogues, then waited for that acceptance letter,
- felt the effects of "Senioritis",
- cried at their JSR,
- dressed excitedly for the prom,
- took our last final exam.

And now its A Time For Moving On and we---

- clean out our lockers,
- say our good-byes,
- cross the stage for our diplomas,
- and close the door at 45 Harvard St.

Now we belong to TIME.

A Time For Movin' On

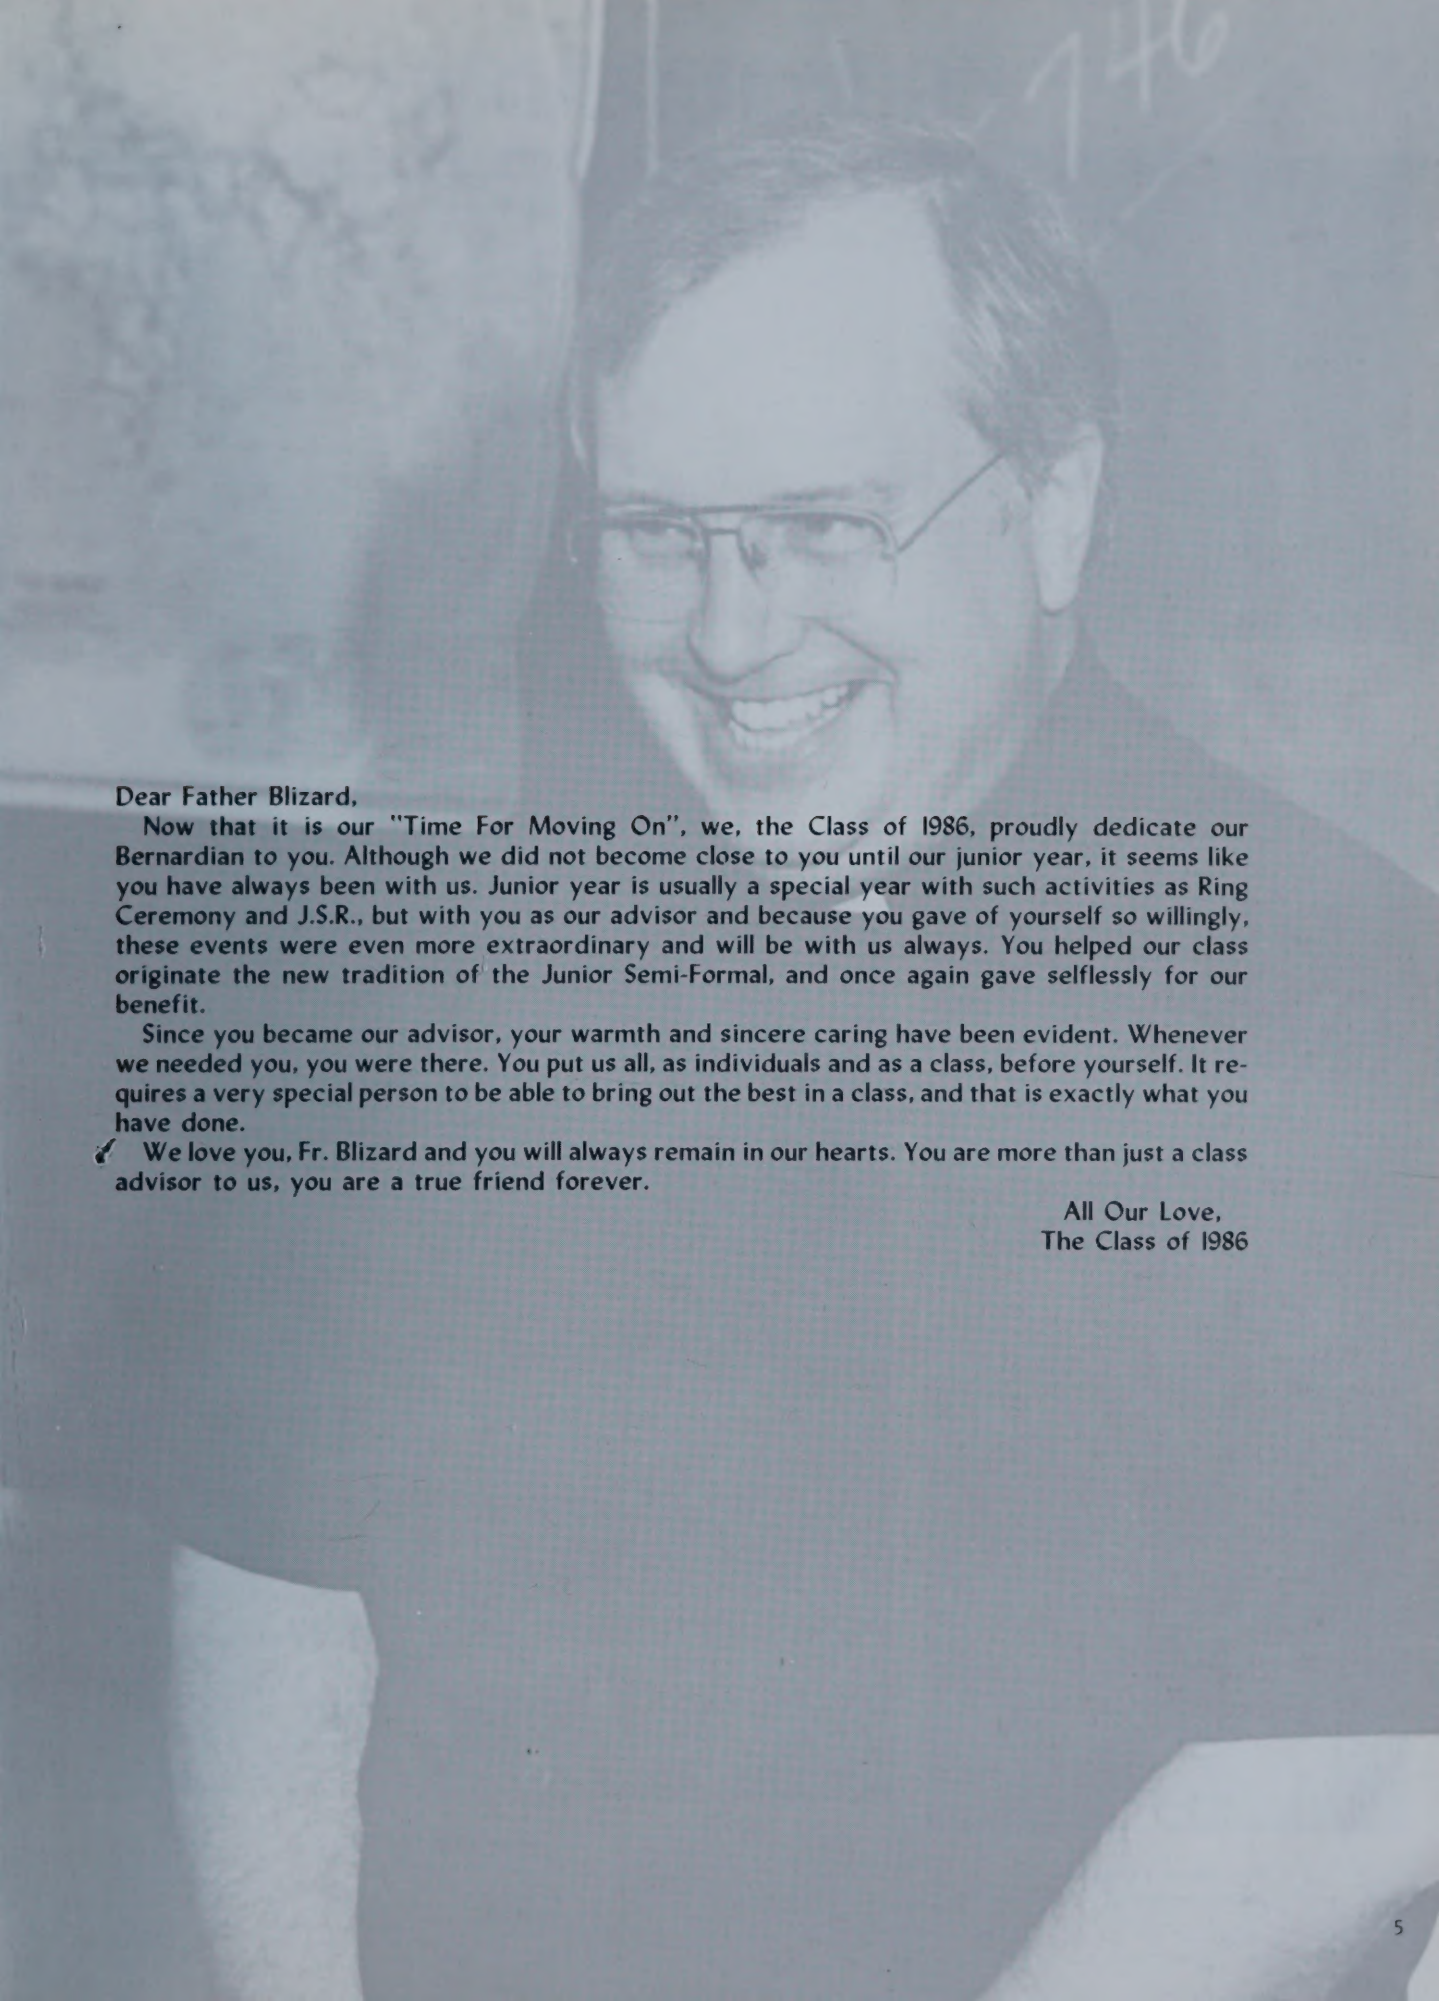

*We've travelled a long, long time together
And there have been a lot of good things on the way.
But now, it's almost time for leavin'
And the things I feel inside are very hard to say.
But it's time for movin' on my friend
Hold back all the tears and sorrows
It finally is time to go our seperate ways
And I want to wish you well my friend
As we search for new tomorrow
Go as you must, but please . . . don't forget the yesterdays.*

*Remember the dreams we dreamed together
All of the joys we shared in getting to today
Now just one time before you leave me,
Reach out and take my hand; and help me walk away
For it's time for movin' on, my friend
Hold back all the tears and sorrows
It finally is time to go our seperate ways
And I want to wish you well my friend
As we search for new tomorrows
Go as you must, but please . . . don't forget the yesterdays.*

DEDICATION 1986 FR. DAVID BLIZARD

Dear Father Blizard,

Now that it is our "Time For Moving On", we, the Class of 1986, proudly dedicate our Bernardian to you. Although we did not become close to you until our junior year, it seems like you have always been with us. Junior year is usually a special year with such activities as Ring Ceremony and J.S.R., but with you as our advisor and because you gave of yourself so willingly, these events were even more extraordinary and will be with us always. You helped our class originate the new tradition of the Junior Semi-Formal, and once again gave selflessly for our benefit.

Since you became our advisor, your warmth and sincere caring have been evident. Whenever we needed you, you were there. You put us all, as individuals and as a class, before yourself. It requires a very special person to be able to bring out the best in a class, and that is exactly what you have done.

✍ We love you, Fr. Blizard and you will always remain in our hearts. You are more than just a class advisor to us, you are a true friend forever.

All Our Love,
The Class of 1986

“IN A MATTER OF TIME”

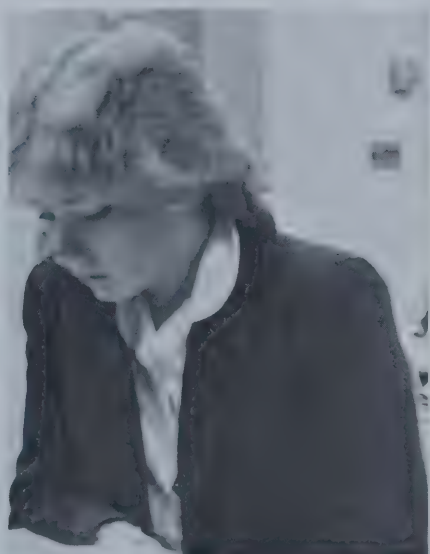

BEGINNING OF TIME

IN THE MEANTIME

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

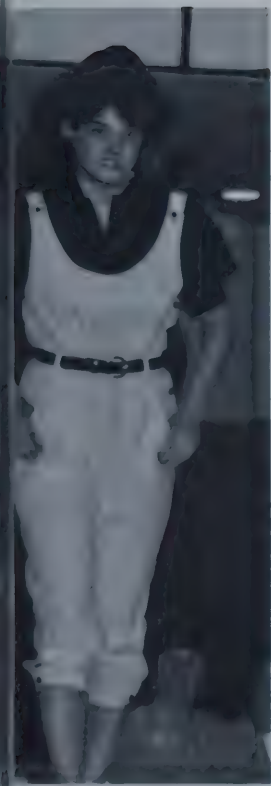

RING CEREMONY

The Junior Ring Ceremony of the Class of 1986 took place on December 4, 1984. The mass was celebrated by Fr. Joseph Garafalo and concelebrated by Fr. David Blizard. Our own musicians and soloists, along with the rest of the class, incorporated beautiful and meaningful songs in the ceremony. This event was our first true experience of class unity. From that point on, we have grown closer together.

Tea Time

The Class of 1986 initiated the new tradition of the Mother-Daughter Tea last year on May 5, 1985. As Juniors, we presented a fashion show for Senior girls and their mothers. Junior models were: Anne Marie Higgins, Cindy Perodeau, Mary Beth Murchie, Elizabeth Sampson, Jackie Pizzuti, Lynn Crisci, Robin Ginque, Cindy Caron, Susan Raymond, Maria Fini, and Kelly Walters. Junior servers included Sue Mini-chiello, Maria Antonucci, Michelle Boot, Michelle Belletete, and Mary Delaney. Mrs. Grenier and Mrs. McGuirk organized this event. Fashions were provided by Lerner's. The Activity Center was beautifully decorated with fresh flowers and pastels.

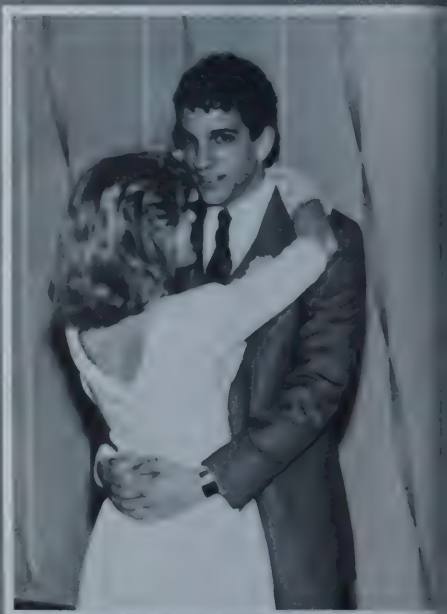

Semi-Formal

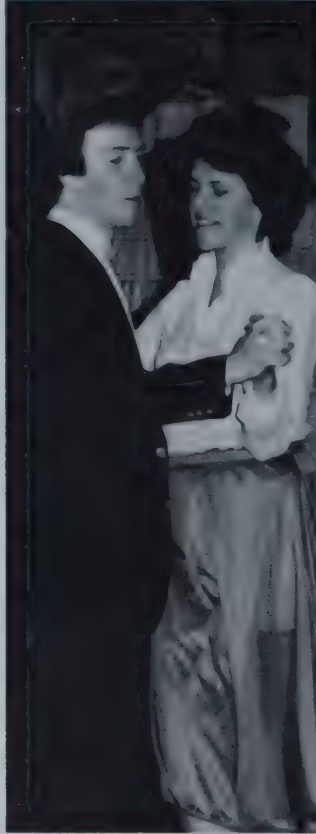

On March 2, 1985, the Junior Semi-Formal became another new tradition begun by the Class of 1986. Advisors Fr. David Illizard and Sr. Mary Lorraine worked closely and diligently with the Junior class officers in preparation for this event. The dinner was catered by Shirley Catering and the music was provided by "Night Mirves". The queen and court were selected by the band. The queen was Bonnie Spinelli, and the court included Elizabeth Sampson, Stacey Gagne, Donna St. Louis, and Anne-Marie Higgins. The evening, filled with dance and laughter, was enjoyable for all who attended.

SHOW TIME

The 1984 musical, Bye, Bye Birdie, directed by Mr. Nicastro boasted many juniors in lead roles and supporting parts. The voices of Susan Mini-chiello, Teresa Bedard and the dancing of Cynthia Perodeau, Jackie Pizzuti, and Elizabeth Sampson delighted the packed house. A highlight of the show was the song Telephone Hour featuring juniors Stephen Mullaney and Brian Mc Mullen. For the first time ever members of the faculty debuted in the school musical with Fr. Blizzard and Mrs. McGuirk in leading roles. Kelly Walters and Mary Beth Murchie along with several other juniors were featured in chorus numbers.

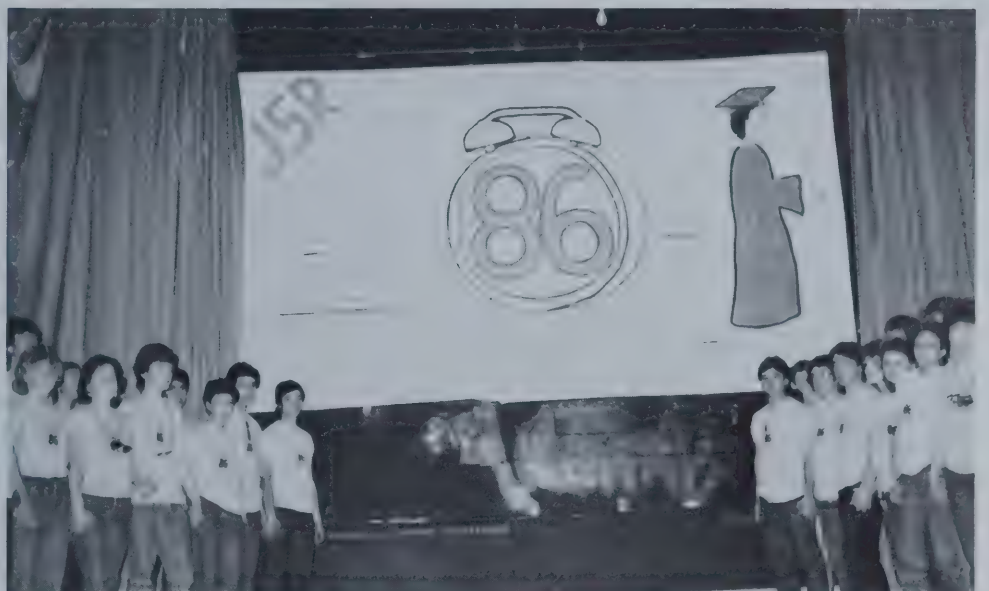

A TIME TO CELEBRATE

Through our J.S.R., our class truly became unified. Together we worked intensely to write and organize our show. Together we rehearsed our skits and songs over and over. Together we laughed and cried. Together we grew. Our once diversified groups became a whole---the Class of 1986. We discovered many different talents in our class and combined them for a fantastic show. Arm in arm on stage we sang our theme song knowing no matter who was beside us, that person was a part of us and a friend.

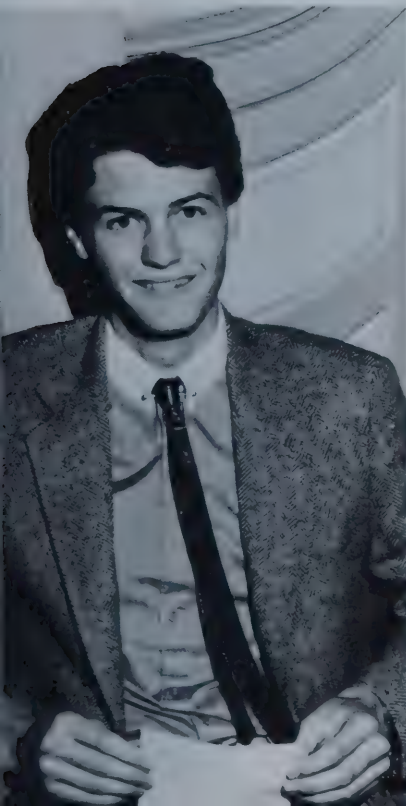

WE TRAVELED A LONG,

LONG TIME TOGETHER

[illegible]

Time has passed us by so quickly,
And our time together is now through
But there are certain memories we all share
And will remember in all that we do.

Our Freshman year seemed the worse
while listening to the Seniors gloat,
But who can forget the frosh football team's Unique version of "Row Your Boat"?

Then as we became Sophomores
Our lives seemed to change once again.
We went from feeling completely lost
To saying, "It must be a Freshman!"

Capsule

Junior year was a year to remember,
As our JSR was called the best!
No one will ever forget The Romantics, The Time,
David Letterman and the rest.

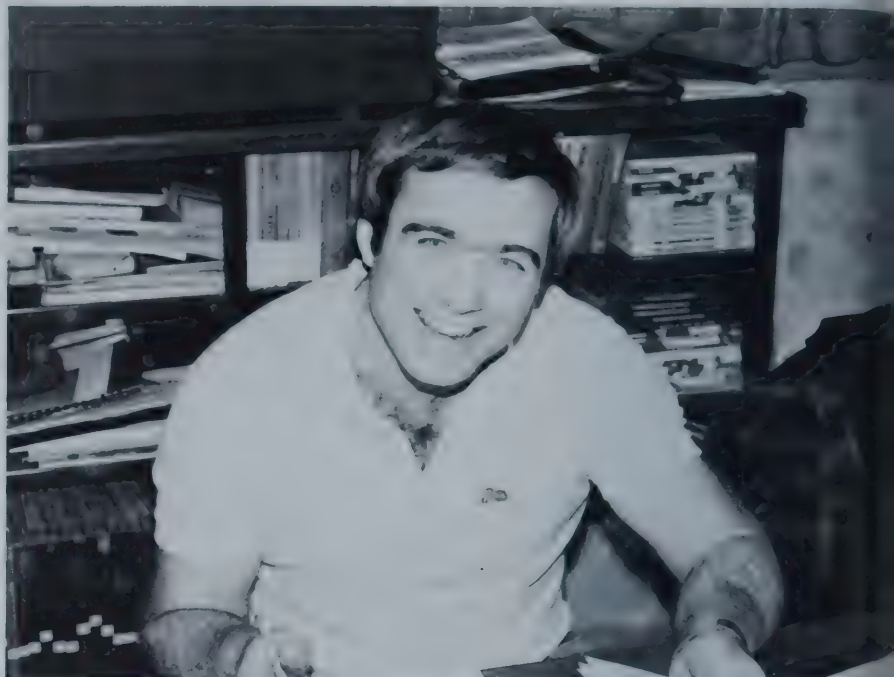

Our best year and our last
Began with Freshman-Senior Night,
Our chance to regain the dignity we lost
When we experienced this fright.

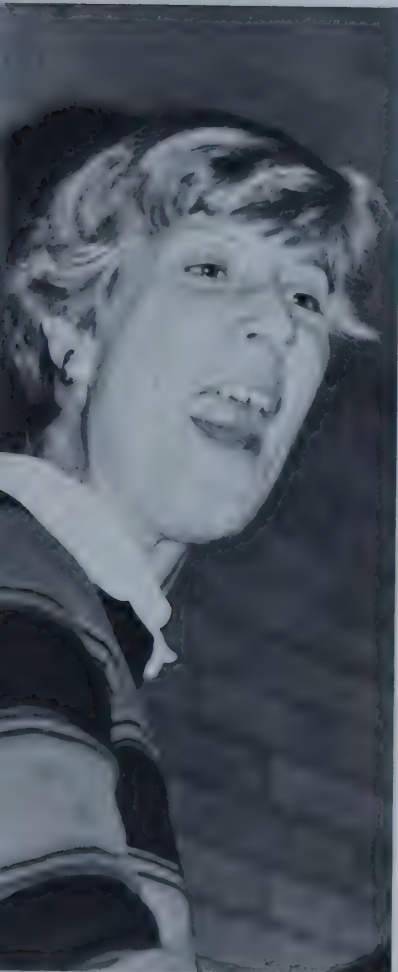

So much more will be remembered
From our first Homecoming to our last.
Dances, friends, and St. Bernard's High
Have now become our past.

-Jane Doucette '86

IN MEMORIAM

BRENT E.
HENDRICKS
1968 - 1985

I wish before it was too late,
that I could have said "I love you."
The pain I feel grows deeper when I think of what we used to do.

With all the love that you gave to us,
I always take time to see,
that if this love can take away
the loneliness inside of me.

Now time passes slowly
our friends grow far away,
I think this could be different,
if only your love would stay.

But you and I, we always knew,
as time would come to pass,
that more than some will go away, eventually, at last.

So now, as I say my last good-bye,
to you my dearest friend,
I'll cherish always the love we shared,
and know that it shall never end.

You know you're a freshman when-

- you walk into the wrong class.
- you carry a Super Hero lunch box.
- you can't reach the shelf in your locker.
- you carry as many books as Mr. Costello.
- you are still wearing clip ties.
- you have different color barrettes for each outfit.
- you sing on the bus.
- you are fitted and measured for a locker.
- you are the same height standing as sitting.
- you button your blazer.
- you eat baby food again.

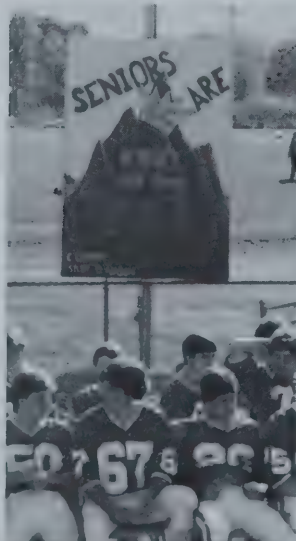

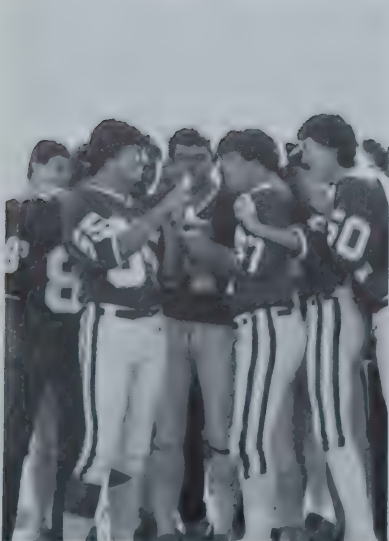

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

HOMECOMING

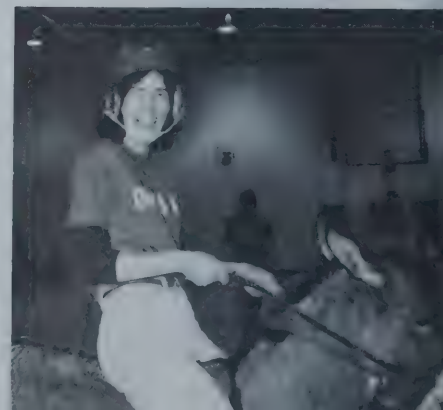

Seniors reigned over Homecoming 1985 by sweeping the awards for best banner, best hallway, and most spirit at the rally and game. The banner proudly boasted Seniors Are King of the Mountaineers. Inside the "Senior Kingdom" hallway, clouds and Class of '86 crowns hung from the ceiling and blue and gold shone proudly. The Homecoming Court was announced at the rally. Homecoming king and queen were William Barassi and Jennifer Provo. The court was as follows: seniors, Michael Fuller and Justine Suri; juniors, Andrew Clarkin and Candice Cormier; sophomores, John Martin and Suzanne Ruddle; freshmen, Kevin Brion and Leslie Tata. The game was a heartbreaking loss with the final score Wachusett 15, St. Bernard's 14.

RING CEREMONY

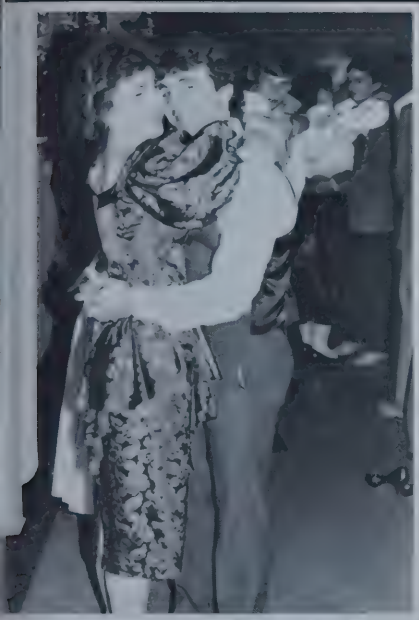

The Junior Ring Ceremony for the Class of 1987 took place on November 19, 1985 in the school auditorium. The ring ceremony, an annual event, is the key event in uniting the class. Fr. Robert Shauris and Fr. David Blizzard were the celebrants of the mass. Readings were done by class officers Cassandra Mizhir and Ann-Margaret Tessi. The gifts were offered by Holly Morin and Kimberly Thomas, also class officers. Altar servers were juniors Anthony Bosco, Thomas Noto, John Antonioni, and Brian Babin. The juniors individually received their rings from Sr. Janice Goodale. A reception was sponsored by the sophomore class after the ceremony.
